1. Introduction

This manual extends to the information held by Transmed Medical Fund, hereinafter referred to as Transmed. Transmed is a registered medical scheme, registration number 1582, with the Council for Medical Schemes (CMS) in terms of section 24 of the Medical Schemes Act 131 of 1998, as amended.

Transmed falls within the definition of a private body; therefore, the sections pertaining to private bodies will be applicable.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 (“the Act”) gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information in records held by public (government) or private (non-government) bodies that is required for the exercise of protection of any rights. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, Transmed is obliged to release the information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released.

This manual informs requesters of procedural and other requirements which a request must meet as prescribed by the Act. This Manual has therefore been prepared in terms of section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (“PAIA”) and updated in the light of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (“POPIA”).

It is important to note that the Act recognises certain limitations to the right of access to information, including, but not limited to, limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy, commercial confidentiality, and effective, efficient, and good governance, and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa.

2. Purpose of PAIA

It is intended to:

- Outline the procedure to be followed to request for access to a record;
- A description of the records and categories held by and on behalf of Transmed;
- Relevant forms that are required to be completed by the requester;
- Stipulate the grounds for refusal of access to any records;
- Outline the applicable fees payable when requesting access to these records.

14. Access to records held by Transmed

Records held by Transmed will be accessed only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met by a requester. A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of or held by Transmed. There are two types of requesters:

14.1. Personal requester

A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester. Transmed will voluntarily provide the requested information or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

14.2. Other requester

This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties. However, Transmed is not obliged to voluntarily grant access. The requester must fulfill the prerequisite requirements for access in terms of the Act, including the payment of a request and access fee.

15. Request procedure

15.1. A requester requiring access to information held by a Transmed or by the administrator on behalf of Transmed must complete the prescribed form. Refer to Annexure A.

15.2. Submit the completed form to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address recorded in section 3 of this manual and pay a request fee and a deposit, where so advised.

15.3 The prescribed form must be completed with enough particularity to at least enable the Information Officer to identify:

15.3.1. The record or records requested;

15.3.2. The identity number of the requester;

15.3.3. The form of access required, if the request is granted;

15.3.4. The e-mail, postal address, or fax number of the requester.

15.4. If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.

15.5. The requester must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right to be exercised or protected. In addition, the requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right.

15.6. Transmed will process the request within 30 days, unless the requester has stated special reasons which would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods could not be complied with.

15.7. The requester will be informed in writing whether access has been granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he/she must state the manner and the particulars so required.

15.8. If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally to the Information Officer.

15.9. Where applicable, the requester must pay the prescribed fee if applicable before any further processing can take place.

16. Decision

16.1. Transmed will, within 30 days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.

16.2. The 30-day period within which Transmed must decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large number of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of Transmed and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30-day period. The Information Officer will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

17 Remedies available when Transmed refuses a requestor

17.1. Internal Remedies

Transmed does not have internal appeal procedures regarding PAIA and POPIA Act request for access to information. Therefore, the decision made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters who are dissatisfied with a decision of the Information Officer will have to exercise external remedies at their disposal.

17.2. External Remedies

A requester or a third party, who is dissatisfied with an Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, or the disclosed information may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to the Constitutional Court, the High Court, or another court of similar status for relief.

18. Fees

18.1. The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

- A request fee, which will be a standard fee; and
- An access fee will be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

18.2. When the request is received by the Information Officer, the Officer will by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the regulated prescribed request fee (if any) before further processing of the request.

18.3. The Information Officer can withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated.

18.4. A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction, for search, preparation and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record(s) for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the requested format.

Request Fees

Where a requester submits a legitimate request for access to information held by Transmed, a request fee is payable up-front before the request will be processed.

Access Fees

An access fee is payable in all instances where a request for access to information is granted, except in those instances where payment of an access fee is specially excluded in terms of the PAIA Act, or an extension is determined by the Minister in terms of section 54 (8) of the PAIA Act.
